

DRY SPEAKERS CONCEDE TAKING "HONORARIUMS"

Senators and Representatives Deny Vote-Selling Insinuations; House Bill Attacked

WASHINGTON, June 18. (P)—Anti-Saloon League "honorariums" for dry members of Congress who take the stump for prohibition became the center today of another whirl of wet and dry discussion in Congress. Much cloak-room speculation and several public statements resulted from last night's testimony by Wayne B. Wheeler before the Senate Campaign Funds Committee, in which he associated the names of four Senators and four Representatives with the League's policy of paying prohibition speakers.

The statements were from some of those mentioned by Mr. Wheeler, and the explanations made were of widely different character.

Representative Lowry, Democrat, Mississippi, said it was true that he accepted a fee of $60 from the Maryland Anti-Saloon League for making a dry speech in Baltimore and had "no apology to make."

NOT ON LEAGUE'S PAY ROLL. Rising to a point of personal privilege in the Senate, Senator Willard, Republican, Ohio, said he had made speeches outside Ohio before he became a Senator, but that payment for them was made by the "communities" to which they were addressed. He never had been on the League's pay roll, he said, nor taken money from the national organization.

Representative Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, mentioned by Wheeler as having made many dry speeches for pay, said he "conceded" to accepting a modest honorarium, and challenged Senator Reed of Missouri, Wheeler's cross-examiner, to "please enlighten the public how many thousands he had made trying to influence him since he became Senator." He also asked Reed to investigate the sources of income of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment and cited instances in which he said the members of the association had boasted of turning dry majorities into wet majorities in Maryland and Massachusetts.

COOPER ADMITS TAKING FEES

Likewise conceding he had taken "modest honorariums" from local organizations or churches, Representative Cooper, Republican, Ohio, denied Senator Reed's insinuation that Senators and members of Congress have been influenced to support the dry cause because of any speaking fees they have received as well as from the committee.

In the middle of the continuing hub of discussion of Wheeler's testimony at the Senate end of the Capitol, a minority of five members of the House Judiciary Committee voted yesterday to sustain one of the administration's pending prohibition bills as a reversal of sound principles of law. The report, prepared by Representative Tucker, Democrat, Virginia, and signed by all other Republicans, minority, Congressman, Illinois; Perlman, Republican, New York; and Weller, Democrat, New York, asserted that feature of the administration bill which would permit the government to sue to restrain rum runners outside territorial limits. As written, the minority contended, the bill would assert jurisdiction over the ships of all nations" on the high seas and such a claim will shock the nations of the world and will be challenged by every civilized country."

ANDREWS PLEADS FOR AID

The bill, previously approved by a majority of the committee, is at the moment a dead letter. There is little prospect of action at this session of Congress. Sensing a possibility that others of the administration's group of enforcement measures may fall in the court which precedes adjournment of Congress, Senator Andrews said today he would be greatly handicapped as enforcement chief if all these bills failed to become law. He was particularly anxious to see action be taken on the proposal for a separate enforcement bureau in the Treasury, and also the one permitting retired army officers to serve as prohibition officials. The same amount of expense from the Anti-Saloon League which is tending now, although there are indications that more of it will be heard before the end of the session.

EDUCATION LAUDED

"From a bookless setting forth very briefly the growth of Chicago, I have seen that its universities enrollment nearly 50,000 students, and that $1,000,000 are expended annually for the education of the 400,000 children in your public schools.

To this must be added the contributions of private organizations, the efforts of the Catholic church, and numbers of others who build and maintain their own schools.

"The reason for the self-imposed burden will explain. President Lincoln, the patriotic Christian leader of your nation, some months ago, when he said: 'An intellectual growth will only be obtained through a more or less complete knowledge of the world around us.'

"It is for these reasons that the religious life of the nation is so important. Its free exercise is guaranteed by the fundamental law of the land. If America is advancing economically, if it is the abiding place of justice and freedom, it is because it is in harmony with their religious beliefs.

Sweeping Bill Hitting at Smuggling Urged

Commons Committee Reports After Bitter Clashes

Would Halt Liquor Ships on Way to United States

Ottawa (Ont.), June 18. (AP)—Sweeping measures to curb smuggling on the Canadian border and to prevent the clearance of ships carrying liquor from a Canadian port to the United States were recommended to day in a report handed down by a special House of Commons committee.

Pending reorganization of the customs service, the committee recommended Police be immediately detailed for patrol work on the border.

The dismissal or suspension of a number of customs employees in Montreal, Quebec, and Rock Island was recommended to the government for investigation into the conduct of officers at Windsor, Ont., and other important points.

The committee was appointed on Feb. 5, last, following charges made against the customs department by H. H. Stevens, Conservative member for Vancouver, center.

MANY CLASHES

Since then, the committee has been meeting almost constantly. Its report was adopted after many meetings in camera and after sharp divisions of opinion.

It was on the question of ministerial responsibility that the committee most differed. The report finds that Jacques Bureau, former Minister of Customs, "failed to appreciate and properly discharge the responsibilities of his office."

The report recommends that regulations be made to prohibit clearing of ships to and from Canadian ports.

The present plan is to have an adjournment resolution offered Monday in the House where such a proposal will be voted upon. The committee will then be called in to consider the deficiency bill.

Decision to wind up the session was due to the demand for a Senate vote on the controversial revenue and harbors bill.

Opposition leaders explained the delay in another attempt to fix a time for debate on the bill to wear out the measure, realizing that the discussion was getting out of hand, and that it would be futile to get a vote this week, as enough time would be needed for a roll call early next week.

Youngest Student in History of University of Chicago to receive master of science degree is S. William Simon (above), who was just 20 years of age when the coveted sheepskin was handed him the other day. He received his bachelor's degree at the age of 18. He plans to study further in Vienna. (P. & A. photo.)

After an Existence of Fifteen Years, the Misses Janes' School in Hollywood will suspend indefinitely with the graduation exercises this afternoon at the Hollywood High School Auditorium. An at-home to all former pupils of the school is to be held next Saturday. Photo shows a group of students at the school, many of them the sons and daughters of prominent citizens.

BY ROBERT RAY

Doc Crandall, who has been in Coast League circles and which is prohibited, seems to get better with age, pitched and batted the Oregon leading Angels to an 8-to-0 victory over the Portland Beavers yesterday at Wrigley Field.

"Doc," as Otto James Crandall is more familiarly known, not only kept the 6 slugging Ducks away from the plate all afternoon but also hit two singles and a double that drove in four runs. Better yet, Doc scored more personally, as he had a hand in driving six of the Angels' markers.

(Though Crandall was touched in the ankles during the day it did not stop him from hitting 8 of the 10 most of them down. When they didn't mean anything, Crandall, arrayed against Crandall, Lee Mangum, Maxie and Lefty French, the Angels were the only ones to score. The Angels didn't score again until the sixth when he retired in favor of Lamar. By that time though, the Angels had scored 8 runs. Johnson might just well be the hot boy pitcher in the game was in the w. K. and the Angels won the game 8-0.)

Samson Koerner Defeated, In Fifteen-Round Bout for Championship

BERLIN, June 18. (AP)—Franz Diener defeated Samson Koerner on points in a fifteen-round fight tonight. He thus retained the German heavyweight championship. Diener intends to go to the United States, probably in July.

HELEN TO PLAY AT WIMBLEDON

Tennis Club Announces Receipt of Entry for Singles Play

LONDON, June 18. (AP)—Announcement was made tonight by the secretary of the All-English Lawn Tennis Club that a message had been received from Miss Helen Wills, American tennis champion, stating that she would play in the women's singles of the Wimbledon championships.

Miss Wills will undergo an operation for appendicitis on the 4th inst. at the American hospital at Neuilly, near Paris. While on the way to the operating table, she whispered to one of her team-mates that she would play right away. When she was struck down while playing in the international hard-court tourney at Paris.

On Thursday, Miss Wills' Mother said that Helen would not play in the Wimbledon tourney because of a fault in her father given on in which it would be unwise for her to play so soon after her operation.

It was announced that she would go to Wimbledon as a spectator.

LOCAL LAUGHS

WRITE FOR THE SCREEN AND WIN PRIZES

Each week the Times produces a motion film entitled "Local Laughs," consisting of the best of the week's comic strips, each joke receiving a cash prize. Prize-winning jokes, with names and addresses of writers, will be published in the film contest open for all. No rules except that jokes must not exceed thirty words, need not be many, and as often, as you wish. Mail to: "Local Laugh Editor," Los Angeles Times.

Merrillous Jokes which are too long or otherwise not adapted to the screen are not eligible. The Times comic page receives thousands of entries.

Still, it would not be surprising to hear any day of California Petroleum and United Oil figuring in new negotiations, but it is not the public utility proprietary that is the leading factor in the public utility proprietary's arrival in Los Angeles. Both are working on a plan of expansion, the former looking particularly to marketing advantages and the latter to the fortification of crude oil supplies. United will find its way into some larger organization with the requisite oil reserves, but California Petroleum apparently determined to pursue an independent course, and the company seems to prefer the role of seller rather than of buyer.The skirmishes between negotiators and the actual completion of the merger will not be known until the year at least shows that the speculators are on the right course.Standard Oil of California has fol-

BOND QUOTATIONS

BOND QUOTATIONS

NEW YORK. June 18. (P.T.)—Strong buyback movement in U. S. government obligations and certain foreign issues featured today's moderately active bond market. Trading interest was at a low ebb in domestic railroad and other corporation bonds but prices held steady. The usually heavy volume of new financing which the investment market has been called upon to absorb this week appeared to have reached a peak.

The fall of 1 to 5 points in Mexican bonds were attributed to a belief that funds which have been accumulating for the debt service will be distributed next month. The government's 5% bonds advanced 5 points. Japanese to a 1925 high price of 95. Japanese government 6½% and second 4½ both sold at the year's best levels and Rhenish-Elbe Union, the strongest unit of the German group, crept up to a record. Speculative activity accounted for most of the gains in the railroad list. Iowa Central 8s, Wabash 4s and the Seaboard, "Katy" and Frisco adjustment issues attracted buyers but gains were limited to a point or less. Canadian Northern 4½% were exceptionally strong, advancing more than two points to a new high for the year. A $12,000 issue of Canadian Pacific Railway's first equipment notes was placed on the market at prices to yield from 4 to 4.5% per cent for the various maturities. Remington Arms 6s was among the few industrial issues to attract attention, gaining 1 to 5 points. The Canadian 10s were higher but the Crude Oil 6s were unchanged at 101 1-8, the price at which $10,000 of these bonds have been called for redemption.

Yieldings yesterday's high, low and closing prices for all New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond.

GOOPS!
A Dandy Lesson in Manners for Children
BY GELETT BURGESS

(Copyright: 1924 By The Chicago Tribune.)

INDIAN GIVERS.
When one has given things away.
But wants to have them back, they say.
He is an Indian Giver, though I hope they'll never call you so!
Goops, after giving, oft regrets it!
But when you give, then just forget it!

PLIGHT LAID TO HOMESICKNESS

American Deserted Post in French Colony

Extreme Penalty Unlikely for Bennett Doty

Prisoner Kept in Citadel of Middle Ages

DAMASCUS (Syria) June 18. (Exclusive)—Secretary of the Navy Curtis D. Wilbur delivered the Bunker Hill Day address at the celebration in historic Charlestown before 2000 citizens who filled the armory to capacity.

"Look back to 1775," the Secretary said, "look into the minds of the men who fought at Bunker Hill. What happened exceeds even their wildest dreams."

"There is no deserter here," Doty told a correspondent of the Associated Press. Doty is a native of Biloxi, Miss., but enlisted under the name of William Clark in Memphis, Tenn., in the Foreign Legion, where he had a record for bravery.

According to his talk yesterday he became discouraged and overcame by the court-martial. He quit his post.

"But," he explained, "he returned to his courage by finishing his enlistment in the Foreign Legion "gloriously."

Doty appeared more concerned about the honor he had caused his father than the dangerous position in which he now finds himself. He did not feel that he might be led before a firing squad, but hoped to demonstrate his courage by finishing his enlistment in the Foreign Legion "gloriously."

NOW that government statistics show Los Angeles is close to the suicide championship of the United States . . . We might as well look into the matter and see what it all about. In the evening papers I find two or three of peculiar interest.

BROKEN HEARTS, HUH! One is a girl who tried to kill herself by taking poison. She hinted darkly of a broken heart.

Of course, that's rubbish. Dogs have died of broken hearts, maybe, but few humans ever loved anybody but themselves well enough to be that tragic about it.

In her case it was pure melodrama. The desire of an obscure and unnoticed, vain girl, who wanted to attract attention to herself. Even if it cost her life.

That is not at all an unusual case.

DILLUSIONED HUSBAND A young husband, discovering himself married to a fool, turned on the gas.

He had married a young lady with artistic yearnings; she didn't want to stay at home, but felt an urge to be out where the lights are lit of a night. So he wrote a note saying that "this is a rotten old world," and turned on the gas. Happily his life was saved by neighbors.

BRIGHT LIGHTS It isn't a rotten old world. All things considered, it's a pretty good one. But I will admit that it is a severe shock to find one's self married to a girl who can find one iota of entertainment out of an evening under the "bright lights."

BEAUTIFUL BOHEMIA Ya, brethren, this place that they call "Bohemia" is a dismal and stupid land.

Between an evening locked up in a cow stable—under penalty of reading a delinquent tax list, or the Congressional Directory from cover to cover—glimpses the cow stable rather than an evening under the bright lights of Bohemia.

On one never-to-be-forgotten evening I rashly consented to be a guest at a gay party in a studio where young genius tricks and frolics. I lasted just fifteen minutes. I never saw so many tiresome dandies gathered together in one small space before.

THE SICK MAN Another suicide was that of a sick man who—feeling the cold fingers of death—shot his wife. He said he had determined to "take her with me."

It is difficult to penetrate the state of mind of a man who wants to kill a loved one—for fear she may stick around afterward and have a good time with other people. I should say that this case was that of a hog, self-slaughtered.

FAILURE OF FAME One of the principal causes of suicide in this part of the country is the failure of men and women to break into the circle of movie fame.

The business of fame is a desperate business. I think that none other is so unhappy. In my whole life I have never known a single famous person who was happy. That is to say, famous in the sense of being a great artist. I imagine that Henry Ford is as happy as most people ever get.

BODY HUNTED IN MYSTERY CASE

Officers Convinced Welch Has Been Murdered

Room-mate of Supposed Dead Man Strikes Suspect

O'Brien Knocked Unconscious by Charles Palmer

Convinced that Thomas E. Welch, missing since last Sunday morning, has been murdered, Captain of Detectives Slaughter of the Hollywood division yesterday detailed a squad of officers under Detective Lieutenants Mahoney and King to search for Welch's body. Jack O'Brien, arrested as a suspect Thursday, was still in custody last night and will be subjected to further questioning.

A cap and suit worn by O'Brien when he was arrested, and a pencil and wallet he carried were identified yesterday by Charles W. Palmer, Welch's roommate, as the property of the missing man. When O'Brien was taken by detectives before Palmer the latter became so enraged he knocked O'Brien senseless with a heavy punch to the jaw. Officers had to hold Palmer to prevent him from attacking O'Brien again after the latter was revived.

O'Brien's arrest followed the finding of Welch's automobile, stained with blood, in front of 4228 Fountain avenue, where he was found in custody. The suspected man stated to detectives yesterday that early last Sunday morning he met two men in an automobile downtown, had a number of shots fired over one of the men, also a pencil and wallet, for $3. The two men, he said, told him the car they were driving had been stolen and they intended to return it. When this did not occur, O'Brien said he got in the car and drove it home. He explained the blood stains by saying he had cut his hand on a broken window.

According to detectives, O'Brien visited two women at 1027½ West Thirty-eighth street at 8 o'clock Sunday morning, his clothing and hand stained with blood, and told them he had been in an accident and had just killed a man. He brought an extra suit with him and changed his clothes, the women are reported to have told the officers who also state that when O'Brien left he threw the body back of a fruit stand.

Squadrons of detectives were working last evening on the theory that Welch's body will be found in the neighborhood of the Brea oil pit.

A N IDEAL HUSBAND If I were a girl, I would pick out a husband who could bring witnesses to prove that he had never had an artistic idea in his whole life; some one who thought that Michael Angelo was president of the Irish republic.

Some one who didn't have hollies or soft corns; and who was on good terms with the bank directors and didn't make too much fuss about what he had to eat. If he ever started to soar beyond Farrell Bell Wright and Tom Mix, I'd shoot him and find another one.

DRY VIOLATOR FACES FINE OR JAIL TODAY

Isaac Shuman was given until noon today to pay his fine of $1000 or go to jail for 300 days by Municipal Judge Edmonds yesterday. Shuman pleaded guilty to three counts of Wright Act violations. Federal Prohibition Agents Wykoff and Kimball said they arrested Shuman at 1060½ West Third street on April 7, last, and found thirty gallons of wine and whisky. Solomon Sudwin said to be a former rabbi, also was arrested and pleaded guilty to the possession charge. He was fined $500 and given a suspended sentence of ninety days.

VON KLEINSMID TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, has been named as one of the representatives of the Methodist Church to attend the World Conference of Faith and Order to be held at Lausanne, Switzerland, in August, 1927, as a member of the Commission on Federation and Inter-denominational Pronouncements. Von KleinSmid is appointed as laymen's representative. Other members of the delegation include James B. Joy, A. W. Harris and James A. Janes. Ministers who will become members of the Commission are J. M. M. Gray, Edward J. P. Shaw and Robert Eugene Bishop, yet to be named by the Board of Bishops.

PROGRAM FOR AD CLUB FROLIC NEARLY READY

With last-minute arrangements for the Ad Club Frolic well under way, Director-General H. B. "Barty" Wright announced yesterday that the committee was working a top speed on the few remaining details of the big show to be held at Bovard Auditorium, Thirty-fifth Place and University Avenue, Monday night.

Business Manager James G. Sprecher said there would be a few good seats reserved for the box office on the night of the frolic, which will comprise twenty-one professional acts in addition to the presentation of "Balboa's Buster." Lew Odell has definitely promised to act as master of ceremonies.

JUDGES DISCUSS LEGAL RED TAPE

none the less true," Eugene Overton, president of the Los Angeles Association of Attorneys, said of the bench of our nation. "Our let it deteriorate and become the tool of politicians and subject to baleful influences (naming the district attorney one), once let it lose the people's confidence and respect and then what?"

"The courts are clogged and judges have to do quantity work instead of quality work," Albert Lee Stephens, presiding judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, said, and he raised the question, "Are too many lawyers making a living at litigation?"

"Well we better the situation by wise laws or by improving the quality of judges' services?" Chairman John Perry Wood asked in opening the session, and then he suggested that the judges "conduct a clinic on themselves."

For May recommended to the people the proposed amendment to the Constitution by which a judicial council would be created. Through it the work of courts now independently operating would be centralized under the State. He said that more than half of the cases go up to the higher court on account of the inflexibility of court rules laid down by the Legislature. Skilled legal advice following of these cumbersome rules so often that in many cases the judges are attending the sessions which are conducted in the Alexandria.

Technical becomes lost in combat for jurisdictional procedure. He commended the proposed judicial council as a means to eliminate this major obstruction.

Judge Brown commanded the judicial council proposal. He advocated a surrender of the power of the courts in making authority, maintenance of a self-governing bar association to which all attorneys would be required to belong, improvement of legal education and bar admittance standards, selection of judicial candidates by the governing board, and improvement of judicial tenure and salaries.

PRINCIPAL SYSTEM ATTACKED

Mr. Overton severely condemned the primary-election system of nominating judges.

"So far as the selection of judges is concerned the direct primary has proven a miserable failure," he said. He recommended the selection of judicial nominees by the bar association.

Chief Justice Waste of the Supreme Court presided over the first session. It was followed by a dinner and an evening session. The judges will resume their conference this forenoon at 9:30 o'clock, conducting both forenoon and evening sessions.

Chief Justice Waste and President Charles A. Shurff of the California Bar Association will address the forenoon session. Several score judges are attending the sessions which are conducted in the Alexandria.

enrollment will be confined to a limited number of basic subjects and will not attempt to include a large variety of studies which are commonly pursued in other colleges. Finally the methods of instruction will be individualized persons will be limited to those who have been trained in the past ten years ago and which resulted in his being called to the pastorate. Tomorrow morning a communion service will be conducted new members will be received into the church and Dr. Briegle will give an address appropriate to the occasion. Special music programs for both services to morrow have been prepared by the choir and quartet.

THE WAY OF CAIN
Dr. Charles E. Hurlbut, general director emeritus of the Africa Inland Mission, will be the speaker at the Krotona Drama on Saturday evening.

The morning program will be a summer school and conference to be conducted at the Bible Institute during the three weeks.

Evening services will be open to the public, but the daily gatherings will be of special interest to ministers and church officials and workers. Popular lectures will be given in the evenings.

Accommodations in the way of buildings will be necessary for students in Scripps College to make use of the facilities now provided by Pomona College, such as dormitories, library, laboratories, etc. While it is intended that Scripps College will gradually build up its own plant and its instructional staff, it is realized that both these things will require time. Meanwhile, however, students in Scripps College will be admitted to certain courses in Pomona College. Indeed, the whole scheme of Claremont colleges is based on the idea of co-operation among the individual schools.

RICHARDSON MOVES INTO SHORE HOME

Long Beach Residence Taken by Governor and Family for Summer Months

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent
LONG BEACH, June 18.—Gov. and Mrs. Richardson and their son John took up their summer residence here today. They will remain about two months.

"It is just like coming home," remarked Gov. Richardson. This is the sixteenth successive vacation season the Governor, who is a sun-bathing enthusiast, has spent here.

The Governor was too busy settling in his summer home to talk politics or business. The home of C. C. McWhinney at 2405 East First street has been placed at the family's disposal. McWhinney is the law partner of former Superior Judge Clock, whose home was occupied by the Governor's family last year.

This noon the Governor and his family were guests of Judge and Mrs. Clock at a lawn party at their Ocean Boulevard home. This afternoon they visited Frank F. Merriam, Speaker of the State Assembly and a candidate for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

The Governor will endeavor to reduce appointments to a minimum while on his vacation. He expects to make frequent trips for the transaction of State business to the State Office in Los Angeles, where his secretary is in charge.

He expects to spend the mornings in the surf with his son or on the tennis court.

Social Worker Returns From Hawaiian Work

Social-service workers with weak eyes will do well to avoid the Hawaiian Islands, according to Capt. Margaret Cox of the Salvation Army, here for a brief furlough with Col. Blanche Cox at Pacific Palisades.

The home with its city-county complex has come to the attention of city officials through a prayer of Mrs. Bateman to the City Council that she may avoid the difficulties she has been experiencing in getting a city garbage collector to remove cans and other refuse from her back yard.

In her communication yesterday she stated the garbage collectors repeatedly have refused to cart away her old cans, holding the act not legally performed as a part of the home is outside the city limits.

Annexation of that part of the home outside the city spells solution of her problem, she stated, and as the only voter in the territory, she proposed to be annexed.

Both day and laundry day take the mistress of the household alternately in and out of the city and county courthouses times.

Mrs. Cox, who has been serving the Salvation Army in the kitchen cabinet in the city and serves in her county dining-room.

Canned goods bought in the city with money earned in the city are delivered to the home only once a week. Delivery boy takes the trip through county territory to the east side of the house, re-enters the city and presents them at the kitchen door on the way to the house.

Canned goods are stored in the city kitchen cabinet in the city and served in her county dining-room.

The Batemans get two tax bills, one from the city for half the house and one from the county for the other half. Even the chickens go into the county dining-room and although the hen work is done in the city, Mrs. Bateman hangs the clothes in the county to dry.

Portions of the home in the city

Three bedrooms, bathroom, a hall, basement and much of the attached and living-rooms in the house of the house, while the breakfast and dining-rooms and the other half of the living-room and kitchen are in the country.

Division of three lots; one in the city and two in the country, in which the Batemans got the city lot and erection of their home in the center of the lots.

The Batemans get two tax bills, one from the city for half the house and one from the county for the other half. Even the chickens go into the county dining-room and although the hen work is done in the city, Mrs. Bateman hangs the clothes in the county to dry.
